Fast Review is tool that came to market in the right time, outbidding the financial cost with the business value. It is uniquely cutting distance from the service provider (hotel, restaurant, bar, etc.) and customer by capturing customer's feedback at the point of experience while it is still going on, and not being transferred into memory part of the brain. Customer gets an opportunity to give honest and what is most important not delayed, fresh response, while service provider can target all customer, bypassing mercy, and being able to make it right at the point of experience. In this way, market and potential client get much broader and stronger picture about service provider and whole social media review process becomes more honest and transparent. So, to summarize, Fast Review is revolutionary product that will change not only social media scene, but also whole review process for good.
